About the artist

"I believe that imagination is stronger than knowledge. That myth is more potent than history. That dreams are more powerful than facts. That hope always triumphs over experience. That laughter is the only cure for grief. And I believe that love is stronger than death." Robert Fulghum

Carrie Webster is an artist, photographer, children's book author, mum, and IT specialist, and lives in Sydney, Australia. Carrie is often seen around her home photographing things like pegs, fruits, vegetables and other everyday objects. She can then be seen at her computer for hours using Photoshop to transform these objects into magical characters set in whimsical photographic landscapes.

In the short time Carrie has been pursuing a career as an artist her work has been selected as finalist art work in a number of international and local photographic & art competitions. More recently Carrie's work has been selected as a finalist in the Lethebridge 1000 artprize, the Olive Cotton Award, and the Sunshine Coast Artprize, and her photographic artwork was displayed as part of a digital exhibition at the Louvre in Paris.

Carrie published a children's book in 2016 called "Francois the Fearless Circus Peg".

Carrie completed a Bachelor of Visual Arts at COFA in her early twenties, and evolved into the field of graphic and web design. She also has a Masters in Information Architecture. Along the way, Carrie has constantly worked on creative projects in parallel with her professional life.

Carrie plans to quit her day job when she becomes famous ☺

Welcome to her secret life as an artist. Shhh!
