ABOUT ME

I create patterns and illustrations inspired by the BIG WIDE WORLD. Always looking up, down and around.

I am an illustrator, surface pattern designer and lover of all things patterned. This passion for the pattern has led me to create repeat patterns, artworks and illustrations that are a glimpse into how I see the world and to the connections between art and nature.

These works I create are layered with textures, colour and shape to evoke the memories of my childhood bush and coastal explorations and how I love being close to both.

All designs start life hand drawn and painted, drawing inspiration from the big wide world, especially the botanical world. My work combines bold colour palettes of watercolour and gouache with linework illustrations. Once painted and drawn, I digitise to create botanical, sometimes whimsical, repeat patterns and illustrations revealing a wanderlust for world around.

Being able to create how I see the world is the best job in the world.

Exotic Canopy

COLLECTION

The Exotic Canopy Collection by Fiona Solley is inspired by travels to exotic lands. Close your eyes and be surrounded by the cool tropical forests. Imagine being fanned by afternoon breezes and lounging by lagoons of refreshing water.

Each of the six patterns are firstly hand painted in gouache and brought to life digitally. It's about bringing thoughts of exotic locations to your living spaces.
