ABOUT ME

I create patterns and illustrations inspired by the BIG WIDE WORLD. Always looking up, down and around.

I am an illustrator, surface pattern designer and lover of all things patterned. This passion for the pattern has led me to create repeat patterns, artworks and illustrations that are a glimpse into how I see the world and to the connections between art and nature.

These works I create are layered with textures, colour and shape to evoke the memories of my childhood bush and coastal explorations and how I love being close to both.

All designs start life hand drawn and painted, drawing inspiration from the big wide world, especially the botanical world. My work combines bold colour palettes of watercolour and gouache with linework illustrations. Once painted and drawn, I digitise to create botanical, sometimes whimsical, repeat patterns and illustrations revealing a wanderlust for world around.

Being able to create how I see the world is the best job in the world.

Along a Coast

COLLECTION

Along a Coast is about where the sea meets the shore.

Take a walk along the coast, exploring the aquatic objects that are deposited on the shore...

Discover and being enveloped by the ever changing moods of the coast ... at times dark and unpredictable ... calm and refreshing at other times.

Immerse yourself in the undulating organic shapes, colours and textures that the coast will reveal when you look and feel.
