GIRIJA KULKARNI
AUSTRALIAN BEAUTY: TEXTILE

Australian beauty

I love all the things about Australian natural beauty!
Different types of trees, and colorful flowers,
native plants and other non-woody plants.
In this collection I have tried to capture some Australian native beauty,
in natural shapes and colors,
"Australian beauty" collection is blends in five different designs with two colorways.

GIRIJA KULKARNI

“Hello art lovers! Welcome to Artbygirija! world of shapes and colors! I just love drawing and painting natural shapes in my realistic painting style in any medium like watercolor or acrylic and gouache! I illustrate and create repeat pattern designs out of those illustrations, for every creative soul who loves art!”

Hi, I am Girija, an artist and a mother! I am based in the beautiful city of Wollongong, hundred kilometers south from Sydney! I moved to Australia ten years back and decided to be a full-time artist. This journey was not easy at all! Basically, I am an illustrator and visual graphic designer, and was working in the advertising industry in India before moving to Australia.

Initially I was only an illustrator and graphic designer, but I learn to design repeat patterns in these years and now become a confident surface pattern designer. I am inspired by nature from my age of early life, my designs reflect my passion for natural shapes and colors like flowers birds and animals! My painting style is simple and natural, I like to bring out all the elements in the organic way in my designs! Now I am feeling life is too short for being an artist, I am constantly trying to create more and more art, so that it can remain in this world through the beautiful clients of mine!

I am licensing my art through Artshinelicensing and sell my art through my shops on Artshineshowcase, Spoonflower and Etsy. Join with me in this creative journey socially @www.instagram.com/artbygirija/Girija Kulkarni
