floral and Childrens designs.*

Meagan is an Australian artist residing in the Southern Highlands region of New South Wales.

Always drawn towards artistic endeavours, after studying photography for two decades, she began her art journey during the lockdown period of 2020 by diving into the world of watercolours.

From there, her passions drew her to the art of surface pattern design and she continues to study to open up the world of surface pattern design something that set her soul on fire..

Her work is greatly influenced by the Australian landscape, and is grounded in her strong sense of family and connection.
the vibrant paintings and fine line artworks are heavily inspired by her family and the various breath-taking landscapes she has visited on her travels across our sunburnt country.
