Celina Nguyen is an artist and designer based in Canberra, Australia. Her works are generally inspired by Oriental and Zen themes - reflecting her heritage and obsession with florals and ornamental animals.

She often uses vibrant and chromatic colours in her work and incorporates traditional watercolours to give each piece a distinctive appeal.

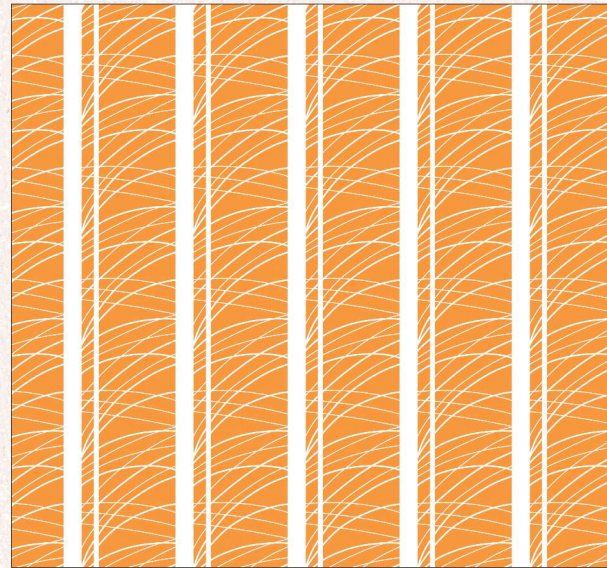

Besides creating artworks and designs, she's also into Argentine Tango and travelling.

It was through dancing that led her to start her journey into surface pattern designing, where she'd sew her own dancewear using the fabrics that had her designs on it.

She later found her designs were also loved by others and the vivid colours from the patterns simply stood out, which became an important part of her signature style.

From then, Celina aims to make an impact with her work and hope her designs will enhance lives, not just through fabrics but also through various means.
