Meagan Peacock
ARTIST + DESIGNER

*Fusing watercolour and fine line ink artworks
with a digital accent to create colorful, floral and Childrens designs.*

Meagan is an Australian artist residing in the Southern Highlands region of New South Wales.

Always drawn towards artistic endeavours, after studying photography for two decades, she began her art journey during the lockdown period of 2020 by diving into the world of watercolours.

From there, her passions drew her to the art of surface pattern design
and she continues to study to open up the world
of surface pattern design
something that set her soul on fire..

Her work is greatly influenced by the Australian landscape,
and is grounded in her strong sense of family and connection.
the vibrant paintings and fine line artworks are heavily inspired by her family
and the various breath-taking landscapes
she has visited on her travels across our sunburnt country.

Rockets, Cars and Monkeys.

Exploring the imagination of my children when they were younger, this collection was created as a way to remember the stories of Rockets and aliens in space, matchbox cars racing on the floor or in the dirt of our backyard and the cheeky monkeys they were at mealtime playing with their food.

Moon Walk

Discover all the hidden treasures in Moon walk the hero of Rockets, Cars and Monkeys. this creation is the dreams and stories of adventures into the galaxy of stars and the unknown.

Starry Night

Star gazing the amazing sky on the perfect night trying to make time stop is how Starry night was created, keeping the memories alive of a time past.

Monkey Mania

Monkey mania was created with my two boys in mind, how meal time was like two monkeys playing with their food more then eating it.
