About me

Leisa O'Brien

Leisa grew up in the small town of Bundaberg in Queensland, Australia where she spent her childhood drawing and designing and sewing her own clothes.

Being creative came naturally and a Graphic Art career ensued-majoring in Color and Design. Working with gouache and watercolor, Leisa specialised in realistic illustrations and product design for corporate and manufacturing clients throughout her professional career. She also sold her acrylic, oil and watercolor paintings, Nationally and Internationally as well as teaching art classes and workshops both throughout Australia and in southern France.

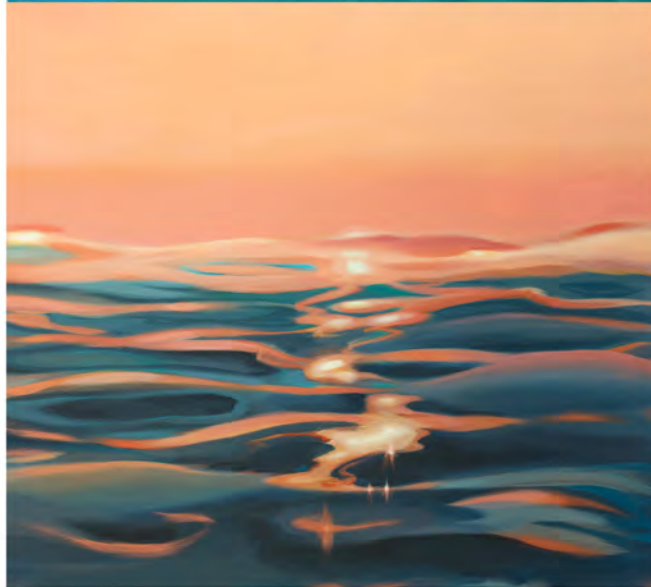

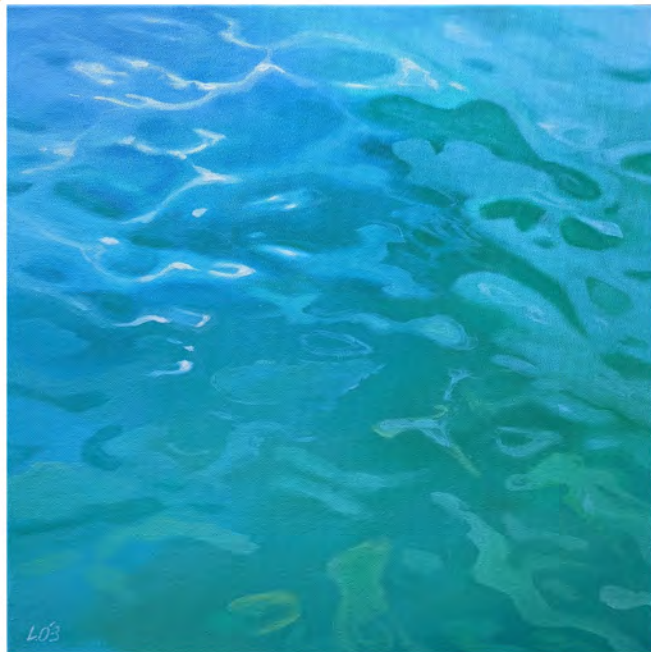

Leisa's artistic career has been quite divergent - from working with designers creating custom furniture and Gym equipment to painting huge outdoor murals to being a Childrens Book Illustrator and Fashion Illustrator and film set Illustrator.

Now living on the sunny Gold Coast, Leisa spends her time designing surface patterns and teaching watercolor on her Youtube channel. She finds inspiration everywhere she looks. Living a life in gratitude to be able to do what she absolutely loves for a living and gets to share it with others.
